I. Claim Objection under 37 CAR 1.75 (c)

Claims 11-14 are objected to under 37 CAR 1.75© as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should refer to other claims in the alternative only. See MPEP § 608.01(n).

II. Rejection of claims 1-7 under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) is maintained for reasons on record and reasons as follows. New claims 8-14 are added to this rejection.

Applicant argues that Fujisawa does not teach an invention comprising a pesticide (herbicide) plus jasmonic acid. Applicant argues that Fujisawa does not teach a synergistic invention comprising the pesticide plus jasmonic acid as in instant claims. Applicant issues are addressed below.

Fujisawa teaches a plant growth regulator comprising jasmonic acid esters. Fujisawa teaches a method of spraying the composition onto plant foliage which results in natural diffusion. The reference does not specifically teach that the composition has a pesticide (herbicide). However, Fujisawa does suggest that other ingredients such as herbicides and carriers can be added to the acid ester. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to combine those ingredients. One would have been motivated to do this since the prior art suggests the combination. Applicant merely states that instant combination is synergistic, but does not provide synergistic data.

Art Unit: 1616

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CAR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CAR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
